Units of choice: Infantry, tanks, air transports of the Continental ArmySfmen Continental Army Information District of ColombiaUndin rebel organization: Led by a group of military and intelligence officials from the Pentagon, who call themselves The National Command, they do not recognize the legitimacy of the current president of JSF. They separated from the legitimate government after the nuclear bombing of Washington and the death of the previous president. Ibad El Jabari East U.S. News EuropeVolga, a North African-based organization, is sending raiding groups around the world, attacking coastal regions of the United States, Europe and Russia to steal equipment and slaves for sale in markets in its homeland. They are also suspected of actively fuelling separatism and federalism within the faction by selling numerous weapons and units at an extremely low price. By doing so, we can see them as one of the main sources of division of our faction. Directive 31 Information Region of the Northeast Rebel Organization of the United States: This organization is a free alliance of rogue armed forces and gangs of bandits that emerged in the early days of the collapse. Their name comes from an emergency directive issued from Washington immediately after the destruction of the capital, ordering all surviving military units and civil defense groups to act independently until the National Command is restored. Falkenberg Legion Information Region North FrontierS Allied Rebel Organization: Operation Earthquake was the code name for the European invasion of the United States, backed by stealth and cruise missiles attacking industrial and energy infrastructure along the east coast. It is envisaged as a larger-scale large-scale than the actual campaign of conquest, the strike forces consisted of three heavily fortified combat groups forming an independent legion of combined weapons. Named Falkenberg's Legion after its general commander Anders Falkenberg, the Legion's initial operations were a huge success, capturing New York and Boston and throwing American troops into total chaos. Falkenberg quickly consolidated his control over New England and Maine, and launched devastating forays west like Pittsburgh and as far south as Baltimore. The Legion's success brought Falkenberg a steady stream of reinforcements for more than a year, until the resumption of the Russian offensive in Southwestern Europe and increased U.S. resistance in the northeast effectively cut off their support. Without enough ships to evacuate half of his forces, Falkenberg decided to stay put and continue the fight. Although the Europeans were eventually expelled from New York, they returned to New England before the end of the war. During the crash, Falkenberg took advantage of the divided American leadership to pour out of Canada's lighting campaign, seizing most of its major-southern cities. Since then, the brilliant general has established himself in Toronto as a kind of military governor, ruling his conquered territory in the name of the European Federation. Forgotten Army Information Region of the Central United StatesSut of Central EuropeSeping a Caucasian organization formerly supported by Russia, created the conditions for the third world war, now it has taken its own life. The internal agenda of the Forgotten Army is not clearly understood at the moment, although the desire for world domination or global destruction is not beyond the realm of possibility. Their motives and means are not really well defined. The New Patriot Army Information Region of the Midwest USA New Army patriots is a loose alliance of neo-fascist militias and nomadic gangs that control the Midwest and prey on its inhabitants. Despite poor leadership and frequent interruption of internal disputes, the organization is nevertheless capable of uniting against a common enemy - usually another organization is part of what they consider to be their territory. The Confederation of American States Information Region of the southeastern United States Confederacy of American States is a fiercely right-wing separatist group that severed all ties with the federal government immediately after the destruction of Washington and formed its own independent republic. CAS rules over the southeastern U.S. with an iron fist, maintaining martial law in most cities and grazing political, social and religious criminals in forced labor camps. The Lone Star Of the Republic of the Southern United States Lone Star Republic was formed by extremist political and military leaders after the destruction of Washington. Thanks to them Over a handful of still-operating oil fields, the republic is one of the most powerful organizations in North America, boasting of a large military. Teh Teh republics have territorial ambitions beyond their current borders, especially in the west in Arizona and New Mexico. The Legion Information Region of Western Europe Separatist Organization led by former Ministers of Eurofed, who created a dictatorship in the south of France modelled on the French Republic of Napoleon. They were aggressive in trying to take all of France away from the European Federation, and now they are moving around Paris. Il Fasci Information Region of southern Europe Military organization is centered around a populist leader who used his power to rid Italy of gangster warlords, but now dreams of joining a new Roman Empire. The organization is spreading rapidly throughout southern Europe and the Mediterranean. They see the European Federation as a criminal organization and plan to fight them in the same way as a conventional warlord or drug cartel. The Prussian Empire Is the Information Region of Northern Europe Is a Paranoid, ultra-nationalist organization that revived the Prussian nobility of the 17th and 18th centuries and is dedicated to the creation of Greater Germany. They see the European Federation as a threat to their agenda and an oppressor who will stop to destroy them. They believe that the world is against them, and protect the land that they claim is their birthright. The deadly head of the Legion Information Region of Central Europe Army Deserters Force led by a former Colonel Eurofeder. The Legion has terrorized Europe for years, and now they intend to take over the European Federation, and use their resources to gain world domination. The Black Sea region of the hegemony of southeastern Europe After the collapse of the weaker territories bordering the Black Sea, quickly plunged into chaos. Hunger, disease and lawlessness prevailed until a free coalition of former organized crime bosses collectively moved to restore order. The hegemony of the Black Sea, as they are called, retains power by controlling the flow of power, food and weapons in the areas in which it lies. The information region of the Balkan League Eastern Europe is a separatist organization consisting of a free alliance between the Balkan countries (Albania, Bosnia, Bulgaria, Croatia, Romania, Serbia and Slovenia). The Balkan League leads a coalition of military leaders from the region, all of whom scheming against each other for full control of the league and eventually the rest of The Eurofed. The central Russian information region, led by former political and military leaders of the Russian Federation, took control of Central Russia near the end of the war and has since ruled with an iron fist. The information region of the Army of the Ural, Russia led by die-hard political and military leaders of the Communist Party, the organization wants to return Russia to the days of Stalin and the old Soviet Union. They see the Russian Federation as grotesque over real control, and they intend to destroy it, and erase every every its existence from historical records. This ultra-nationalist organization based in St. Petersburg is determined to restore Russia's former glory by uniting it under the rule of the new tsar. Cossack host of the Information District of Western Siberia Huge, stray gangs of Cossack raiders who pursue settlements throughout the former Russian Federation. They're just looking for a group they can conquer and control - taking away their land and resources for their own, because they don't have either. Information region Black Wolves Eastern Siberia Collection of former military units that control much of Siberia as their personal kingdom. The Black Wolves are well-armed, well disciplined, and led by a council of colonels who decide the organization's strategy.
